

Municipal Responsibility for Youth Activities

2016-02-18

The municipality is responsible for youths between the ages of 16 and 19 who are not in education

The municipality is responsible for the activities of youths between the ages of 16 and 19 who do not attend upper secondary school or special upper secondary school.

Youths affected

Municipal responsibility for youth activities affects youths below the age of 20 who:

- are not undergoing or have completed their education at an upper secondary school, special upper secondary school or equivalent
- are attending an introduction programme

The municipality's responsibility

Responsibility for youth activities means the municipality must:

- remain informed about who is covered by the responsibility
- provide initiatives that encourage youths to take up or resume their studies and complete their education
- record and maintain a register of youths covered in order to guide and assist them into the right school or other activity
