

NATIONAL REGULATIONS

As of 14 December, stricter national regulations and general advice come into force about everyone's responsibility to prevent the spread of Covid-19. Everyone in society, both individuals and business operators, has an obligation to take measures to prevent the spread of infection. This also applies to celebrating festive occasions.

You have a personal responsibility to protect yourself and others from the spread of Covid-19. As of 14 December, you are obliged to:

- Stay at home if you have symptoms
- Limit new close contacts
- Keep your distance from others and avoid crowded places
- Travel in the safest way possible to avoid infection
- Work from home as often as you can
- Maintain good hand hygiene
- Be careful when visiting people who are aged 70+ or belong to an at-risk group
